

Aboriginal Health Worker and Practitioner Workshop

AND warmly inviting all Aboriginal persons working in health

Rheumatic Fever & Rheumatic Heart Disease

Wednesday 5 June 2019 9am – 4pm

Pika Wiya Aboriginal Health Service

Dartmouth St, Port Augusta

*Travel assistance available - see Program Details next page

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders have the highest rate of Rheumatic Heart Disease IN THE WORLD
Let's Prevent Acute Rheumatic Fever and Stop Rheumatic Heart Disease

Proudly presented by the South Australian Rheumatic Heart Disease Program, RHD Australia, Pika Wiya Aboriginal Health Service. Travel assistance provided through the generous support of the Snow Foundation

Government of South Australia

SA Health

Rheumatic Fever & Rheumatic Heart Disease Workshop Program

- Key signs and symptoms of Rheumatic Fever (RF)
- Management and Care plans - monitoring and preventing progression of Rheumatic Heart Disease (reminders and recalls)
- Penicillin injections (Bicillin LA) - practice, pain minimisation
- Patient education - resources and strategies
- Culture and health services - staying strong
- Prevention of Rheumatic Fever - Environmental health, dental care
- Pregnancy and ARF/RHD

Registration: please email rhd@sa.gov.au with your name, organisation, and any dietary requirements.

Reimbursement of travel costs is available for remote area attendees for care hire, fuel & accommodation. Kindly donated by the Snow Foundation. Request travel reimbursement form via email above.

